Tempe News Notes

DAVID STARR JORDAN TEMPE TUESDAY NIGHT

The third number of the lecture and entertainment course being conducted in Tempe this winter will be presented at the normal auditorium on Tuesday night, Dec. 7th, when Dr. David Starr Jordan will deliver one of his famous lectures. It is probable that he will speak on the subject, "The Last Cost of War."

Dr. Jordan is prominent not only as an educator but as an advocate of peace.

The fact that Dr. Jordan will speak on the subject of war and that he will likely touch on the much discussed subject of universal peace will no doubt prove an interesting attraction for this number.

NEW LUKIN STORE

A five, ten, fifteen and twenty-five cent store for Tempe is the announcement made by the W. ### Mesa News Notes

DANCE TUESDAY NIGHT

The ladies of the Residene will hold their annual masquerade ball at the K. of P. hall Tuesday evening, December 14, on which occasion the Collins orchestra has been engaged to furnish the music.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

The Mesa Commercial club held a short meeting last night, but no business was transacted, merely an adjournment being taken until next Tuesday evening, at which time the election of a board of directors and officers for the coming year will be held. It is earnestly requested that every member of the club attend the meeting Tuesday evening.

HERE FROM IOWA

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Allen, of Rockford, Iowa, accompanied by their son and daughter, arrived in Mesa last Thursday for the winter. They came in their car, and if successful in finding a location that pleases them, expect to make this section of the Salt River valley their permanent home.

WHY DOES A CHICKEN—?

F. B. Battle, representative of the Poultrymen's Co-operative Association of Los Angeles, is now in Mesa preaching the doctrine of proper poultry production and ascertaining the lay of the land. He is an authority on ornithology, and while in this section, expects to minister unto the fowl along the lines of pure water, proper food and cleanliness. Mr. Battle states that the Salt River valley offers greater possibilities in the poultry industry than almost any other section of the United States.

MISSOURI SOCIETY TO MEET WEDNESDAY

The Missouri state society will hold its second monthly social meeting and entertainment at the Ross Tree Wednesday evening, December 8, at 7:30. Refreshments will be served and a program rendered, after which dancing will be indulged in. Arrangements are being made for 150 or more.

The general arrangement committee has appointed a reception committee composed of the following members:

Mrs. A. W. Cole, Mrs. J. P. Ivy, Miss Dottie Oglesby, Miss Mabel Smith, Mrs. Chas. E. Harris, Miss Edith Teel, Miss Olive Wilson, E. P. Grinstead, Ed L. Shays, Frank McFall, C. F. Leonard and C. C. Thompson.

Refreshment committee: Mrs. J. H. Clarke, Mrs. Ben Cross, and Mrs. C. O. McMurtry, and an abundance of good things will be provided.

The program has not, as yet, been fully completed, but that portion now arranged is as follows:

Mrs. Chas. E. Harris, piano solo; Robert S. Fisher, address; Miss Edith Teel, reading; M. L. Stewart, address; special music; Judge A. C. Baker, address.

Qualification for admission to the entertainment is to have resided for the least portion of an hour in the show me state or to have drunk water from the "Old Muddy."

dramatic skill and deft technique in this play.

METHODIST BAZAAR

The annual bazaar of the Methodist church, despite the inclemency of the weather, was even more successful, from every point of view, than had been anticipated by the most optimistic of the ladies responsible for its carrying out, and the large attendance and liberal patronage gave decided refutation to the old claim that "church fairs are a device to make the coats pay for the pastorage of the sheep."

VISITING MOTHER

Mrs. H. P. Lovick and son and daughter from Miami, Texas, are spending a few days in Mesa the guests of Mrs. Lovick's mother, Mrs. A. S. Bellamy. The party are on their return to Texas after a pleasant visit in California and at the exposition. A trip to Superior and one to the Roosevelt dam will compose a part of their entertainment while they are visiting in the valley.

David Starr Jordan, High School Auditorium, Monday, December 6th. (Adv.)
